

Whitney's Song

Words and Music by Carla Howell

© Copyright 1988 Carla Howell

Duration: 3:44

In loving memory of my sister's baby, Whitney Elizabeth Bowen, stillborn June 13, 1986

Credits

Vocals: Carla Howell and Kiwi Stalley

Piano: Jiri Nedoma

Guitar: Clay Steininger

Flute: Mike Thomas

Bass: Dave Hines

Drums: Lee Fish

Produced by Carla Howell and Les Fish

Recording engineer: Matt Hayes

Mastering engineer: Eric Kilburn

Studio: Wellspring Sound, Acton, MA

Lyric

When I heard the news
you were comin' soon
We were lovin' you, baby
Endlessly
Well I didn't know how much I cared
Hey, Whitney
Why'd you go?

Leaving me to look around
I'm mad at what I see
People fighting, people dying
Wasting what they need Leading me to look and see the beauty that remains
Winding roads and harbor boats and
Friends to soothe the pain

So I move ahead ever sure to be Taking care of my family
And so I say I thank you dear
For the time that you were here

Though I surely wanted you well
I can let it be
You are in my heart and always
Will be part of me
Let me look and take it in
The beauty in the world
Morning light, full moon at night
A little baby girl

Well I didn't know (Didn't know)
How much I care (How I cared)
Hey, we love you Whitney!
Oh, you're my girl!

Let me look and take it in the Beauty in the world
Morning light, full moon at night
A little baby girl
Let me look and take it in, the Beauty that we see
Winding roads and harbor boats and
Singin' harmony
Singin' harmony
Singin' harmony